TWO TRUCK COMPANIES TO RESPOND

TO HOSPITAL ALARMS.

Policy Adopted to Afford Best Possible Protection to the In-

Chief Engineer Robert W. Dutton of the fire department today forwarded to the District Commissioners a copy of an order he has issued directing that in the future two truck companies shall respond to all alarms of fire sent in from the Freedman's, Children's and Garfield Hospitals, respectively, and from the Washington Orphan Asylum. Each of these institutions has a special private fire alarm box on the premises, so there can be no mistaking the location of the fire when an alarm is sounded from these numbers.

The order is in line with the policy of the new fire chief to give the best possible protection to the hospitals and charitable institutions of the city, where there are many inmates, many of whom are more or less in a semi-helpless or altogether prompt assistance in the event of fire. Chief Dutton has been enabled to issue the order above referred to by the installation of truck company F on Whitney avenue, 'olumbia Heights, giving ample truck facilities for most sections of the city. Mr. Dutton has further recommended to the District Commissioners that they refer to the board of charities the suggestion that other hospitals and charitable institutions of the city be provided with special fire alarm boxes, in order that they may enjoy the advantages of the new rule, the same as institutions already so equipped in the event of fire. The advantage of having as many ladders as possible on the scene in case of a conflagration at a hospital or orphan asylum is readily apparent, and the sending of two trucks on the first alarm from these institutions will provide the means necessary, it is believed, for rescuing all who may peril of their lives from the flames. Heretofore but one truck company has responded to alarms from the four institutions provided with private alarm boxes. Three or four engine companies will, of Royal Glue Sticks Anything Druggists', 10c.

ourse, accompany the two trucks in responding to these special alarms, and a officient number of firemen thus will be on hand at the earliest possible time. Chief Dutton urges that all the institutions of the character mentioned should be provided with private alarm boxes, and that these boxes should be used only in the event of fire in the institution. Ine department will, if such a rule is followed, be informed at once of the work it may have in hand in responding. There are many institutions in in addition to those already guipped with special alarm boxes, in need of being placed in a position for better and quicker fire protection, it is stated, by securing a like arrangement.

AMUSEMENTS.

"IN A BALCONY."-Liebler & Co. have arranged a treat for their literary friends in twenty-four of the largest cities in America, and this city is one of those on the list. By a special arrangement with Manager Joseph Buckley they have secured Otis Skinner as a co-star with Sarah Cowell Le Moyne and Eleanor Robson in a series of Browning performances—performances at which the famous poet's blank verse tragedy, "In a Balcony," will be the principal feature of the bill. The role of Norbert will, of course, be in the hands of Mr. Skinner. Mrs. Le Moyne will play the queen. Constance, the type of willing sacrifice for love will be portrayed by Eleanor Robson. With such a cast it is easy to perceive that the performances will be worthy of the most attentive consideration from the public at large, and especially from students of the higher forms f English literature. Preceding "In a Balcony" at every per-

Frank Connor and Miss O'Brien will be the Mr. and Mrs. Maurteen Bruin, while Oscar Eagle and Miss Dwyer will be Mr. and Mrs. Shawn Nothing that a firm of enterprising theatrical managers could do to make these performances perfect has been left undone by Messrs. Liebler & Co., who have never yet been connected with an inadequate production. The single Washington appearance of this noteworthy combination will take place at the New National Theater on tomorrow night.

THE CIRCUS GIRL.-The third week of the musical season at the Columbia will be devoted to an elaborate production of "The Circus Girl," another of the musical comedies which was presented by the late Augustin Daly with such great success at his New York theater. This musical piece has been seen here once before and made a splendid impression upon our local thea-ter-goers, and should prove a worthy suc-cessor to "The Gelsha." "The Circus Girl" is undoubtedly one of the merriest and these pictures will be seen Leonore WI brightest of pieces and one in which the best members of the present company will be seen. The piece is a jumble of wit, beauty and music. It tells of a rich and reckless youth who wins a romantic miss by posing as an aerial performer. Other characters are an Englishman of title, an erratic French viscount, a lovesick but pugnacious little waiter, and the charming heroine herself. "The Circus Girl" is much more elaborate than either "A Runaway Girl' or "The Geisha," and the management have all the scenery, costumes and properties of the original production as made by Mr. Daly during the successful run of this piece. The delicate task of temporarily mingling English aristocracy with a French circus company, and then unravel-ing the tangle to the satisfaction of all concerned, requires two acts which are replete with bright melodies and snappy dialogue. There will be several new faces in the cast next week, and the management are sparing no expense to make "The Circus Girl" one of the most pleasing of the musical entertainments of the series. It is rather a coincidence that "The Circus Girl" should follow "The Geisha" in this city as it was also the successor of "The Gelsha" at Daly's Theater. The same splendid orchestra which has contributed so conspicuously to the artistic presentation of "The Geisha" will be in attendance, and there will be matinees on Thursday and Saturday. The popular scale of prices that has been inaugurated will also pre-

He will make his initial appearance in the title role of "Capt. Swift," the play in which Maurice Barrymore starred some seasons ago. Owing to the long season of Maude Adams, for whom Mr. Arden has been leading man this year, he could not reach Washington sooner. With his arrival the stock company assumes permanent shape, no more changes being contem-plated. Those who have seen Mr. Arden with Miss Adams, as Metternich in "L'Aig-len," must have been impressed by his striking personality and dignified methods. Though Mr. Arden will have the leading male roles in productions at the Lafayette, the other members of the company will not be sacrificed in casting plays. Minnie Radcliffe will have a congenial role in "Capt. Swift," while a wide variety of roles will offer suitable opportunities to other members of the company. KEITH'S LIVING PICTURES.-The management advertises "Keith's $10,000 production of Living Pictures" as the attraction at the New Grand next week. They are described as the sensation of the sea-son and as constituting his most ambitious offering with which to inaugurate the second week of the summer season. Added to this will be the attractive Royal Hungarian Gypsy Band; a program of numbers of unusually attractive comic character, and new floral and decorative embellishments that have been added from day to day to perfect the beauty of the interior of the New Grand. Keith's Living Pictures were first given in New York city, where they excited widespread admiration and extraordinary attendance during the period of three months. It is claimed for them that they surpass in beauty, variety and artistic perfection the famous Kiliani pictures which originated the vogue for this vaudeville novelty. They constitute reproductions of famous sculpture, ancient marbles, world renowned statuary and the chef d'ouvres of old masters in paintings. There are twenty-eight persons employed in the groupings, and they were selected with especial view to their perfection of form and feature. The back grounds of the huge did products of the scene painter's art, and in transportation fill two cars. The titles of the leading subjects are "Music," "Temptation of St. Anthony," "Visit to an of the leading subjects are Subject, "Temptation of St. Anthony," "Visit to an Art Gallery," "Waiting," "Spring," "Wooing," "Can't You Talk," "The Rock of Ages," "Yankee Doodle," "Dawn," "The Return," "The Arena," "After the Bath" and "Evangeline," The remainder of the program contains only two acts that are familiar here, although they have been changed for this engagement. The others are new comers of established reputations; the most prominent of which are Monroe. Mack and Lawrence, the comedy trio of undisputed ability as fun makers; the perennial favorite, Maude Courtney, "who sings the old songs." Arris and Alice will present a European novelty act. James F. Kelly and Dorothy Kent will be seen in their latest and most successful musical absurdity. Lionel Conkley and Effie Huested, the juvenile comedy artists, present songs and dances. The biograph will present its quota of entertaining pictures and the Royal Hungarian Gypsy Band continue to play promenade and entre-act

ROBIN HOOD, JR., BURLESQUERS.-The patrons of Kernan's will recognize in the Robin Hood, jr., Burlesquers an organ-ization which pleased them several seasons ago, but in which is retained little that will remind them of the former engagement, except the title, and in which is promised much calculated to amuse. In the reorganization of this attraction the management seems to have spared neither pains nor expense, and there is assurance that it will possess all the merit of a brand-new show. It promises a departure from the beaten path in the first part and burlesque, which, while retaining all the features that delight the patrons of burlesque will be found to possess many of the characteristics of farce comedy, and at the same time a multiplicity of scenic effects that mark spectacular productions. Ruby Leoni is still the principal boy of the organization, and shares the honors freceding in a bacony at every performance will be given "The Land of the Heart's Desire," a symbolic fantasy by W. B. Yeats, the Irish poet. For this production Liebler & Co. have also selected a michael with Miss Mildred Connor, a soubrette, who will make her first appearance here. Recognized specialty artists appear in the olio, including Riley and Hughes, Young and Market and Post here.

MINER & VAN OSTEN'S EXTRAVA-GANZA.—The Bijou Theater will be re opened Saturday night for the initial pre-American Extravaganza, The Devil's Daughter, which will be continued on the Bijou stage all of next week, after which it will be taken directly to the Court Street Theater, Buffalo, where it will be presented during the life of the exposition. The company, which is reputed to number over 100, includes some undeniably clever en-tertainers, who have won enviable reputations in important productions of a similar character. Billy Van, who heads the list of comedians, is well known to attendants of the local theaters devoted to burlesque, while Alf Hampton was formerly an im-portant member of Frank Daniels' opera company. Nellie O'Neill was this season the chief member of the Female Drummer and Zella Frank was prominent in the sup-port of Marie Dressler in her starring tour. A feature of The Devil's Daughter will be a series of living pictures, which, it is claimed by the management, will be found to eclipse in the matter of elaborateness heralded as the most beautiful of all Cali-fornia models. The Ladies' Military Band, which was one of the most novel features of "Miss Philadelphia" as produced at the National several years ago, will add con-siderably to the attractiveness and effec-tiveness of The Devil's Daughter. Seats for the engagement are now on sale at the Bijou box office. MR. VILLALPANDO'S RECITAL.—To-night at the Washington Club Wencesloo Villalpando, the Mexican 'cellist, will give a recital, assisted by Miss Wilma Willenbucher and Messrs. Rakemann, Green and Finckel, with Agnes Alden as accompanist. Mr. Villalpando has proved himmself to be a musician of great ability and has made many friends during his residence in this city. His assistants are all well-known performers, and the program to be presented will be well worth hearing.

Now that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has control of the B. and O., why should it not build a grand union station for all the roads and thus avoid the tracks through two sections instead of one? The Wesley Quartet, consisting of Mrs. Bayly, Mrs. Leech, Messrs. Rodrick and Barker, will sing, and a number will also be given by a male quartet. Ten-minute addresses will be delivered on the general subject, "The Young Christian of the Twentieth Century," by the four new pasters in the Methodist Episcopal Churches of this city, as follows: "In Relation to Trinity Church; "In Relation to His Neighbor," by Rev. J. Edwin Amos of North Capitol Church; "In Relation to Litera-ture," by Rev. Joseph E. Smith of Grace Church; "In Relation to Social Life," by Rev. E. L. Hubbard of McKendree Church. Mr. E. S. La Fetra will preside. At the close of the exercises in the main auditorium a social hour will be spent in the lecture room and refreshments served. Date of First Organization. The Epworth League was organized in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Cleveland, Ohio, May 15, 1889. Representatives of five official young people's societies existing in the church at that time met in the then Central Methodist Church on May 14, and from this meeting the Epworth League was formed and its name was flashed over the wire on the following day as the official young people's society in that church. Its growth numerically has been one of the marvels of the age, now numbering about 1,800,000 in the M. E. Church alone. The official organ of the league is "The Epworth Herald," published in Chicago, by Rev. Joseph F. Berry who is also general secretary of the organization. The Epworth League, with some modifications in its organization, was adopted as the official young people's society in the M. E. Church South in 1890. Its membership now numbers over 300,000. The Methodist Church of Canada also adopted the Ep-worth League as its official young people's society in the same year. It has a mem-bership running up in the hundred thousands. District Society.
